Writing

Whilst our year together has come to an end (☹️), your next year with your new teachers is only just beginning and I can tell you that they are so excited to work with you and get to know you better! But there are a lot of you and not so many teachers. So something you can do to help is write them a letter to tell them a little bit about yourselves. P5, when Miss Neal was your teacher in P4, you wrote me these letters and I remember reading them this time last year and thinking how much I just couldn't wait to meet you all. Have a look at all of the Dear Future Teacher resources. You will find 3 different templates you can use as well as a word mat to help you with up levelled vocabulary. Have a think about what you want your new teachers to know about you. What can they do to help you? What are you achieving well within? Where could you use a little bit of support? What are your hopes and dreams for P6/7? If you email me these letters next week, I will make sure they get to your new teachers.
